

Migration in Europe

MigrEU Jean Monnet Module

Prof. Alessandra Venturini

DATE	SUBJECT	HOURS
FIRST WEEK
1 March	Introduction to the course. Organization of the course: web site, lessons, slides and readings, tests, student researches. Introduction to migration trends, to methodological approach and definitions.	3
2 March	Migration stereotypes as introduction to the topic of the course. The migration choice. Some are specialized in the destination countries dataset while others are specialized in the origin information, the two diverge. Special Lecture by Samuel Nocito (part 1)	6
SECOND WEEK
8 March	How to use different dataset for different questions. Specialized in destination or insending countries dataset. Special Lecture by Samuel Nocito (part 2)	9
9 March	Migration and Demography	12
THIRD WEEK
15 March	Why people move?	15
16 March	Why people move?	18
FOURTH WEEK
22 March	The use of Welfare	21
23 March	First Test	24
FIFTH WEEK
5 April	Sona Kalataryan (EUDAL) Different web provider, different data source, a sample of the best data (MPC, IMI, RRM, MPI, EUROSTAT labour force survey, UN demografic source). Afternoon section in a computer room to explain how to derive.	27
6 April	Sona Kalataryan (EUDAL) Different web provider, different data source, a sample of the best data (MPC, IMI, RRM, MPI, EUROSTAT labour force survey, UN demografic source).	30
SIX WEEK
12 April	The effect on the labour market	33

13 April	Irene Ponzio (EUPAL) Multilevel Governance	36
SEVEN WEEK
19 April	Assimilation of migrants into the labor market.	39
20 April	Presentation of the SAME report on effective integration policies.	42
EIGHT WEEK
26 April	Social remittances and growth , financial literacy (Fargues, Spilimbergo and Rapoport), return migration.	45
27 April	Education, migration and development.	48
NINE WEEK
03 May	Special Lecture by Ummuhan Bardak ETF.	51
04 May	Final Test	